Refreshments Offered

In partnership with the City of Toronto, the Toronto Central Palliative Care Network is pleased to present an intimate session where Mr. Mat Krepicz (Senior Analyst, Social Policy Analysis & Research, City of Toronto) will provide us with an introduction to the demographics of the City of Toronto with an emphasis on recent trends and possible future developments. These include changes in ethnic composition, language mix, aging, income distribution, and crime. A brief overview of monitoring systems such as Neighbourhood Wellbeing Indices will also be provided.
